About the Artists

Jeffrey Reynolds has been at the Faculty of Music for 18 years, after an extensive performing career as a trumpeter, including stints with the Calgary Philharmonic and the Victoria Symphony. After touring with the Orchestra of the Royal Winnipeg Ballet he began free-lancing in the Toronto area, appearing with the Stratford Festival Orchestra, the Hamilton Philharmonic and the Hannaford Street Silver Band among other organizations, and playing many theatre and recording engagements. Presently he is the Assistant Coordinator of Performance and Lecturer in Performance and Music Education at the Faculty of Music.

Cameron Walter is Associate Dean and Co-ordinator of Performance at the University of Toronto, Faculty of Music. He teaches music education courses in the area of instrumental pedagogy and conducts the Concert Band and Brass Band. He has performed and recorded with the Canadian Opera Company and the National Ballet Orchestra, Tafelmusik, the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony and the Hannaford Street Silver Band. Cameron Walter studied music education and performance at the University of Toronto, New York University and the Aspen Music School and completed his Ed.D. degree at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education. Prior to his appointment at the University of Toronto he taught for the Scarborough and Etobicoke Boards of Education as well as the Toronto French School and the Royal Conservatory of Music. He has published books and articles in the area of Canadian jazz ensemble repertoire and regularly reviews new materials for several brass and instrumental music journals.
